In the case of duly justified force majeure, both parties agree to reschedule the event within a maximum period of 12 months at no additional cost.

Outdoor area conditions: For reservations in our outdoor area (terrace), please note that we provide ceiling heaters and fire heaters. However, we do not have a covered or weatherproof terrace, so in the event of rain or strong wind, we cannot guarantee relocation to the indoor dining area. We recommend taking this condition into account when making your reservation, as it is an important date and the indoor dining room will likely be in high demand.
